Cboe Announces Keynote Speakers and Agenda for 35th Annual Cboe Risk Management Conference U.S. 2019

- Leading derivatives and volatility traders to meet in Carlsbad, California, March 25 to 27

CHICAGO – February 21, 2019 - Cboe Global Markets, Inc. (Cboe: CBOE), one of the world's largest exchange holding companies, will host the 35th annual Cboe Risk Management Conference (RMC℠) U.S. on Monday, March 25, through Wednesday, March 27, 2019, at the Park Hyatt Aviara in Carlsbad, California.

Top traders, strategists and researchers will discuss the latest products and strategies for managing risk, enhancing yields and lowering portfolio volatility at Cboe RMC U.S. The conference features multiple sessions over three days, with presentations and discussions led by highly regarded industry experts.

One of the keynote speakers for Cboe RMC U.S. will be Yukon Huang, a senior fellow in the Carnegie Endowment Asia Program based in Washington, D.C. Author of several books, including "Cracking the China Conundrum: Why Conventional Economic Wisdom Is Wrong" and "East Asia Visions: Perspectives on Economic Development," Mr. Huang's talk will address the topic, "U.S. – China Economic Tensions, Impact and Implications."

David M. Blitzer, Managing Director and Chairman of the Index Committee at S&P Dow Jones Indices (S&P DJI) will also provide a keynote address. Responsible for index security selection, as well as index analysis and management at S&P DJI, Mr. Blitzer will discuss "Less Growth, More Uncertainty – Is Volatility Here to Stay?"

The agenda and list of speakers for Cboe RMC U.S. is available at www.cboermcus.com. For more information on previous RMCs from around the world, visit www.cboermc.com.

About the Cboe Risk Management Conference

The annual Cboe Risk Management Conference (RMC℠) is the premier financial industry conference designed for institutional users of equity derivatives, options and volatility products.

Cboe RMC is an educational forum dedicated to exploring the latest products and strategies for managing risk, enhancing yields and lowering portfolio volatility for institutional investors. Cboe RMC brings together top traders, investors, strategists and researchers, enabling participants to learn the state of the art in portfolio management from highly regarded industry experts.

Cboe RMC's agenda covers a variety of concepts, challenging attendees to think differently about how they manage positions, employ hedging techniques, utilize equity derivatives, and model and trade volatility. Topics ranging from basic derivatives applications to advanced trading concepts are current and relevant. See www.cboermc.com for additional information.*
