IAMGOLD ANNOUNCES NEW VICE PRESIDENT OPERATIONS

Toronto, Ontario, August 22, 2005 – IAMGOLD Corporation ("IAMGOLD" or "the Company") is pleased to introduce John McCombe as Vice President, Operations. He will be responsible for leading the technical oversight of existing operations as well as late stage development projects. John brings 20 years of international mining experience to IAMGOLD. Most recently, John served as Vice President, Operations at Breakwater Resources, where he has spent the last 10 years in various Management and Executive positions, including posts in Chile and Honduras. Prior to Breakwater, John worked in consultancy as a project manager which included the design of a gold recovery circuit for use in Central Russia. John has also worked for Dickenson Mines Limited (now Goldcorp) where, during his 10 year tenure, he held increasingly senior positions including the management of the Red Lake mine in northern Ontario. John has a demonstrated ability to work well within various cultures and will be an integral part of IAMGOLD's growth.
