CHICAGO, August 6, 2015 - Littelfuse, Inc., the global leader in circuit protection, has been honored by Huawei Technologies Co., Ltd. with a Best Delivery Supplier Award for its service to Huawei during the second half of 2014. The award was presented to David Zha, director of the Littelfuse China sales team, by Wu Qing, Huawei's supply chain director, at Hauwei's headquarters in Shenzhen, China. The award recognizes Littelfuse for its on-time delivery performance, on-time responsiveness in solving a short lead-time issue and support from senior management. Littelfuse is one of just a handful of Huawei's component suppliers to be honored with this award. Littelfuse has been a Huawei supplier for more than two decades, providing a broad range of circuit protection products.

When presenting the award, Wu Qing said, "The second half of 2014 was an exciting, yet challenging time at Huawei, with many 4G projects ramping up. By ensuring we had the circuit protection components we needed for these projects when we needed them and keeping us continuously informed, the team from Littelfuse helped us succeed. We look forward to continuing our productive business relationship with Littelfuse."

Gordon Hunter, Chief Executive Officer of Littelfuse, noted, "I'd like to congratulate the China sales team on their success. We're honored to have our efforts to support Huawei recognized in this way and hope to continue building our business relationship for many years to come."
