KPN proposes to appoint Mr Peter Hartman as member of the Supervisory Board

25 Feb 2015 08:00 CET/CEST

Today, the Supervisory Board of Royal KPN N.V. ("KPN") announces, taking due account of the profile of the Supervisory Board, the nomination of Mr Peter Hartman for appointment as member of the Supervisory Board as per the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders ("AGM") on 15 April 2015. Mr Hartman will succeed Mr Streppel, who will resign having reached the end of his term of office.

Currently, Mr Hartman is vice chairman of the Supervisory Board of Air France-KLM and holds other non-executive roles at Constellium, Fokker Technologies and Royal Ten Cate. Mr Hartman has extensive knowledge of and experience in managing a large organization, (inter)national business matters and relations between a company and society, which he gained during his 40 year career at KLM and in particular during 2007-2013 when he held the position of CEO of KLM.
