Management increases shareholding in KPN

04 Feb 2016 17:51 CET/CEST

This afternoon, all members of the Board of Management have increased their shareholdings in KPN, demonstrating their confidence in the operational, financial and strategic progress of KPN.

Eelco Blok, CEO of KPN, has increased his shareholding in KPN through a market purchase of 87,000 shares. Following the share purchase, Mr Blok owns 721,717 ordinary shares and 964,122 conditional shares in KPN.

Jan Kees de Jager, CFO of KPN, has increased his shareholding in KPN through a market purchase of 26,000 shares. Following the share purchase, Mr de Jager owns 232,410 ordinary shares and 395,798 conditional shares in KPN.

Joost Farwerck, Chief Operating Officer of KPN, has increased his shareholding in KPN through a market purchase of 25,000 shares. Following the share purchase, Mr Farwerck owns 116,071 ordinary shares and 472,995 conditional shares in KPN.

Frank van der Post, Chief Commercial Officer of KPN, has increased his shareholding in KPN through a market purchase of 30,000 shares. Following the share purchase, Mr van der Post owns 81,000 ordinary shares and 385,522 conditional shares in KPN.