Markel promotes Morris Taylor to Chief Information Officer

4/28/2022

RICHMOND, Va., April 28, 2022 /PRNewswire/ -- Markel Corporation (NYSE: MKL) announced today that Morris Taylor has been appointed Chief Information Officer for Markel's insurance operations. In his new role, Taylor will lead the IT function globally and continue to build on critical partnerships across Markel's insurance operations.

"Morris is a recognized leader in information technology, who understands the critical role the function plays in the overall operational effectiveness and success of a global corporation," said Jeremy Noble, Chief Financial Officer. "He has been instrumental in defining our IT vision to provide exceptional services and support across our insurance operations to help Markel execute on its strategic priorities."

Taylor joined Markel in 2018 and most recently served as Head of Global Technology. Prior to joining Markel, Taylor worked at Capital One for over two decades in a wide range of technology leadership roles. He began his career in operations.

Taylor will report to Noble and is based in Markel's Glen Allen, Virginia office.
