JetBlue Customers Traveling To or From New York's JFK Today May Reschedule Through Dec. 28
NEW YORK, Dec. 25, 2005 (PRIMEZONE) -- JetBlue Airways Corp. (Nasdaq:JBLU) will waive change fees and any fare differences to allow customers booked for travel today to or from John F. Kennedy International airport in New York to postpone their plans provided they rebook and travel by Wednesday, December 28. JFK Airport experienced significant delays this morning due to low visibility, and the airline expects delays throughout the day as a result.

Customers are encouraged to call 1-800-JETBLUE (538-2583) to change their flight reservations. Customers may check the status of their flight at www.jetblue.com.

JetBlue Airways is a low-fare airline based in New York City, with operations to 33 cities with 340 flights daily. All JetBlue aircraft feature roomy leather seats with 36 channels of free DIRECTV(r) programming, the most live television offered by any airline, and brand name snacks and beverages. On flights longer than two hours, a selection of first-run movies and bonus features from FOX InFlight(tm) is also available.(1) With JetBlue, all seats are assigned, all travel is ticketless, all fares are one-way, and an overnight stay is never required. For information or reservations call 1-800-JETBLUE (1-800-538-2583) or visit www.jetblue.com.

(1) Note: DIRECTV(R) service is not available on flights between JFK/EWR and Puerto Rico or the Dominican Republic.
