American Airlines Newsroom

NEWS RELEASE

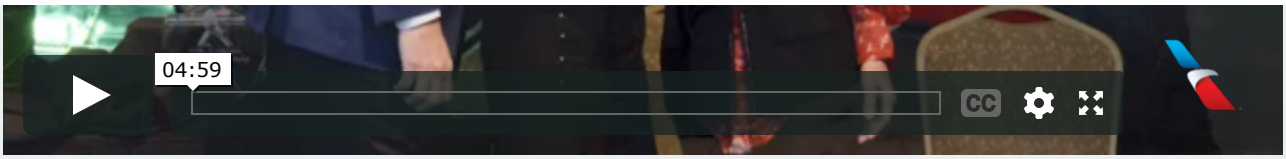
Honored for their advocacy: Meet the 2018 Earl G. Graves Award winners

9/28/2018

For a decade, American Airlines has been recognizing team members across the company for their advocacy in diversity, equity and inclusion. On Sept. 17, at the 10th annual Earl G. Graves Award for Leadership in Diversity and Inclusion luncheon, four new recipients were honored.

Also in attendance was Earl “Butch" Graves, Jr., President and CEO of Black Enterprise. Created in 2008, the award was named in honor of Earl G. Graves Sr., an entrepreneur, philanthropist and former member of American’s Board of Directors (1995–2008).

Meet this year’s recipients in the video below and see what they’re accomplishing at work and in the community



04:59
CC