NEWS RELEASE

American Airlines Applauds Open Skies Agreement Reached Between the United States and United Kingdom

11/28/2018

FORT WORTH, Texas — American Airlines applauds the Open Skies air service agreement reached between the United States and United Kingdom earlier today.

“We congratulate U.S. and U.K. negotiators for reaching an agreement that provides for uninterrupted trans-Atlantic service and ensures that alliances continue to thrive,” said Doug Parker, Chairman and CEO of American Airlines. “Importantly, today’s agreement provides needed certainty for American’s team members and customers around the globe.”

About American Airlines Group

American Airlines and American Eagle offer an average of nearly 6,700 flights per day to nearly 350 destinations in more than 50 countries. American has hubs in Charlotte, Chicago, Dallas/Fort Worth, Los Angeles, Miami, New York, Philadelphia, Phoenix and Washington, D.C. American is a founding member of the oneworld® alliance, whose members serve more than 1,000 destinations with about 14,250 daily flights to over 150 countries. Shares of American Airlines Group Inc. trade on Nasdaq under the ticker symbol AAL. In 2015, its stock joined the S&P 500 index. Connect with American on Twitter @AmericanAir and at Facebook.com/AmericanAirlines.