Welcome Home: Jerome Newton

1/2/2018

Our American Airlines team members watch loved ones come together every day. Throughout the holiday season, we're putting a spotlight on the unique role they play in connecting families and friends. We hope these special "Welcome Home" stories help make your holiday merry and bright.

Thousands of American team members help families come together and celebrate every year. DFW-based Flight Attendant Jerome Newton represents the many who take pride in the role they play to make this time of year special. But Jerome's favorite welcome home holiday story involves an Atlanta couple who helped make Christmas special for him.

Hear Jerome tell his story in the video above.
