Family reunites in Chicago, gives thanks for being together

11/25/2019

This Thanksgiving, American worked with Atlantic Joint Business partner British Airways to reunite a special family from around world for the holiday. Stephanie, Caralyn, Joe and Stephen Mezyk flew home to Chicago from London, Madrid, Los Angeles and San Francisco to surprise their parents Katie and Jan. With Jan unable to travel, the close-knit family hasn't been together for the holiday since 2004. See the touching moment the siblings surprised their parents and celebrated Thanksgiving in the video below.
