

American-Qantas joint business

Unleashing competition and consumer choice

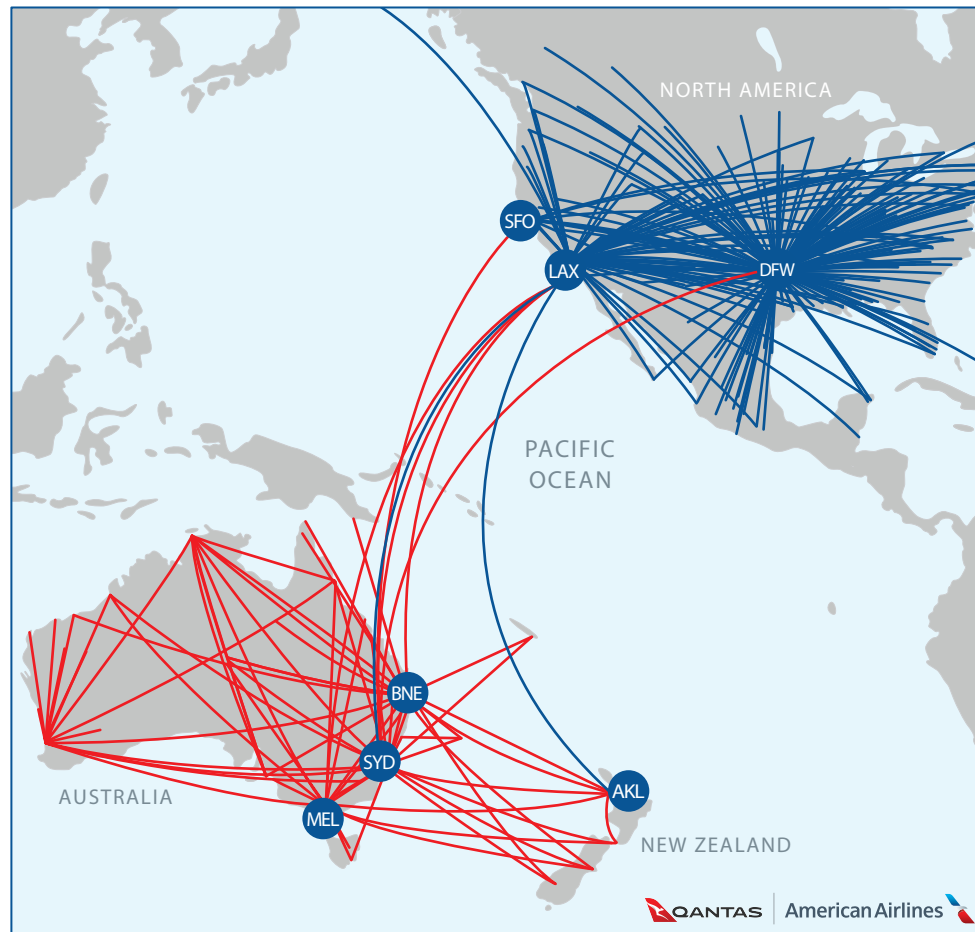

The American-Qantas joint business will stimulate significant demand for new travel – generating up to 180,000 new trips between the U.S. and Australia and New Zealand every year. It will also allow American and Qantas to launch additional routes and encourage investments in lounges, baggage systems and other infrastructure designed to better serve the carriers' joint customers.

MORE THAN $300 million in annual consumer benefits

UP TO $221
million in expanded codesharing and improved connectivity

UP TO $89
million in lower fares from more efficient pricing

BRINGING TOGETHER TWO COMPLEMENTARY NETWORKS

JOINT BUSINESS BENEFITS

The following benefits are only made possible through a joint business:

Improved Connectivity and Fare Options

- Hundreds of new codeshare connections
- Preserves important existing routes
- Expands capacity on existing routes with more seats and flight options
- Up to 3 new routes to/from Australia and New Zealand within 2 years
- Increases the number of seats available at discounted fares

Better Travel Experience

- More convenient gate locations and connections
- Integrated sales and check-in
- Improved baggage handling and tracking
- Closer cooperation during irregular operations

More Perks

- More frequent flyer mileage and redemption options
- Lounge integration and expansion
- Higher-quality food, drinks, and onboard amenities