

Summer 2018: Travel on American, By the Numbers

7/2/2018

Summer 2018 is well underway, and it's shaping up to be the busiest travel period of the year – busier than Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's. You might be surprised to know that our busiest travel day in 2017 was June 30 with nearly 700,000 customers on 6,900 flights. With flights to nearly 350 destinations in more than 50 countries, we're ready for summer travel. Have a look:

American summer travel by the numbers

American's 130,000 team members are ready to serve you during the busy summer travel season:

- 679,591  scheduled mainline and regional flights from May 24 through Sept. 4
- 40  new routes this summer – six international and 34 domestic
- 85  aircraft now with Premium Economy seating
- 174  international aircraft with fully lie flat beds in First & Business Class and satellite Wi-Fi throughout the aircraft

Whether you're checking bags or carrying on, we recommend arriving at the airport

1.5 hours early if traveling domestically

2 hours minimum if traveling internationally
