Hollywood's Favorite Burger Stop to Open Second Filipino Location

PASAY, Philippines--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- FAT(Fresh. Authentic. Tasty.) Brands Inc. (NASDAQ: FAT) ("FAT Brands" or the "Company"), parent company of Fatburger, The Last Great Hamburger Stand™, and Buffalo's Express, is pleased to announce the opening of their newest location in SM Mall of Asia, Pasay City. Building on the success of its first restaurant in the Philippines located in Glorietta 2, Makati, Fatburger's new outlet began flipping burgers on April 28, 2018.

Founded by Lovie Yancey in 1952, Fatburger started as a small hamburger stand in Los Angeles, California. Unlike many other chains, each Fatburger burger is cooked-to-order every time and comes with customizable toppings such as lettuce, tomato, mayonnaise, mustard, onion and pickle relish. Fatburger is also known for their hand-scooped, real ice cream milkshakes available in 4 different flavors, and their made-from-scratch onion rings and Fat, Skinny and Chili Cheese Fries.

To complement Fatburger's menu, Buffalo's Express offers world-famous buffalo-style chicken wings, served with various sauces made with secret blends of herbs and spices. You can also order Buffalo's Express' juicy, made-to-order, boneless and bone-in chicken wings, salads and wraps.

Fatburger and Buffalo's Express SM Mall of Asia will also serve beer and wine by the bottle, and the Los Angeles Street Dog – a juicy frank topped with bacon, grilled onion, bell pepper, mayonnaise, and Fatburger's sweet and spicy mustard sauce.

"We love the Philippines and are thrilled to be opening our second location in Pasay City," said FAT Brands CEO Andy Wiederhorn. "Whether it's our unique menu items created just for our Filipino fans or our traditional American fare, a visit to our new location is sure to provide something delicious for everyone in your party, which is very important to us."
