O&M REMAINS IN THE 'SWEET SPOT'

THESTREET.COM RECAPS CEO ED
PESICKA'S MAD MONEY INTERVIEW

President & CEO Ed Pesicka shared how Owens & Minor has invested in and increased output of N95s and other critical PPE supplies, and added new capacity to its Americas-based factories ahead of our six-month targets. Stockpiling and excess capacity will help beat the shortage challenge, but PPE's use outside healthcare will also drive demand. That, along with consistent debt paydown, prompts Mad Money's Jim Cramer to call O&M "in the sweet spot."
