OWENS & MINOR'S VICKY LYLE TO SPEAK AT HIDA PROFESSIONAL
WOMEN IN HEALTHCARE
LEADERSHIP SESSION

Following HIDA's Virtual Supply Chain Summit, the organization will host several virtual leadership sessions. On Thursday, September 24, Vicky Lyle, Owens & Minor's VP of Industry Associations, will participate in the Professional Women in Healthcare Leadership Session: A Candid Conversation About Equality In The Workplace from 10-11 a.m. EDT.

Attend this interactive workshop to hear from Vicky and a diverse panel of leaders from the healthcare industry on the lessons they've learned about their own unconscious stereotypes and how they're building strong, diverse teams.

The panelists will share perspectives on creating a fair and safe work culture, recognizing and dealing with unconscious biases, empowering employees, and more.
