V2X Recognized for Deal of the Year at Annual Corporate Growth Awards

6/9/2023

Company Release - 6/9/2023

MCLEAN, Va., June 9, 2023—V2X (NYSE: VVX), is delighted to announce its recognition as the recipient of the Deal of the Year Award in the $250M+ category at the 21st Annual Corporate Growth Awards hosted by the Association for Corporate Growth.

This esteemed award acknowledges V2X's remarkable achievements through the execution of the merger between Vectrus and Vertex in 2022. This union propelled V2X to the forefront of the operational segment of the Federal service market; together, the company provides an unparalleled range of integrated solutions and critical service offerings across the federal space, including operations and logistics, aerospace, training, and technology markets. With its expanded size and diverse capability portfolio, V2X is equipped to deliver innovative solutions to national security, defense, civilian, and international clients.

"This honor underscores the transformative value and impact that V2X is having on the industry," said Chuck Prow, President and Chief Executive Officer of V2X. "We are uniquely positioned to meet the evolving critical mission requirements of our national security clients and to provide them with cutting-edge solutions that drive readiness, agility and operational excellence."

The Corporate Growth Awards celebrate organizations that demonstrated exceptional growth strategies, innovation, and deal-making prowess, recognizing their contributions to the business community. The Deal of the Year Award specifically acknowledges the most outstanding merger or acquisition that exemplifies excellence in execution, strategic vision, and positive impact on the company and its stakeholders.

With this notable accolade, V2X further solidifies its position as a leader in the converged solutions market, committed to delivering unparalleled value, innovation, and excellence worldwide.
