Vectrus Wins $43 Million Contract to Provide Installation Maintenance Services at U.S. Army Garrison Stuttgart

7/12/2018

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., July 12, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Vectrus Systems Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Vectrus, Inc. (NYSE: VEC), announced the win of a $43 million U.S. Army contract to provide installation maintenance services at U.S. Army Garrison (USAG) Stuttgart and surrounding areas. The firm-fixed-price contract has a potential five year period of performance and represents new work to Vectrus.

"Stuttgart was a great win for Vectrus that will further enhance our position as a leading provider of facilities support services in Germany while increasing our current scope of work in United States European Command," said Chuck Prow, president and chief executive officer of Vectrus. "We look forward to providing our Army client with the exceptional value, performance, and innovation that they've come to expect from Vectrus."

Under the USAG Stuttgart contract, Vectrus will provide administration, facility operations, preventive maintenance, repair, and construction services for Government-owned facilities and installed equipment.

USAG Stuttgart has approximately 23,000 community members and is headquarters for United States European Command (EUCOM) and United States Africa Command (AFRICOM). USAG Stuttgart manages five installations in the Stuttgart area including: Panzer Kaserne, Patch Barracks, Kelley Barracks, Robinson Barracks, and Stuttgart Army Airfield.
