Vectrus Wins $60 Million Task Order to Provide Base Operations Support Services at Naval Station Guantanamo Bay, Cuba

11/1/2018

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Nov. 1, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Vectrus Systems Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Vectrus, Inc. (NYSE: VEC), was awarded a new $60 million firm-fixed-price task order to provide base operations support services for the U.S. Navy at Naval Station Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. The task order, awarded under the Navy's Global Contingency Services Multiple Award Contract II, known as GCSMAC II, includes a base year and two six-month option periods. GCSMAC II provides short notice and temporary facility support services and incidental construction in support of natural disasters, military efforts, and humanitarian support for the Defense Department and other customers around the world.

"This is an important win for Vectrus and we look forward to supporting the Navy and its important mission at the Guantanamo Bay Naval Station," said Chuck Prow, president and chief executive officer of Vectrus. "Through innovative solutions, we continue to broaden our geographic presence while balancing and diversifying our portfolio."

Under the Guantanamo Bay task order, Vectrus will provide base operations support services including family housing, facility management, facility investment, custodial, pest control, integrated solid waste management, grounds maintenance and landscaping, utilities, management, electrical, wastewater, water, and base support vehicles and equipment.

"Importantly, this base operations support services task order builds on our existing IT and engineering work with the Navy, which includes providing a full range of network support services to the U.S. Navy's afloat force and Electromagnetic Effects Engineering," explained Prow. "Our team did an excellent job creating and offering a value-added solution and we are proud to support the Navy's largest task order under the GCSMAC II indefinite-delivery indefinite-quantity contract."
