Vectrus announces contract modification at Maxwell AFB

11/21/2016

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Nov. 21, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Vectrus Systems Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Vectrus, Inc. (NYSE: VEC), has been awarded a $20 million modification for continued base operations support at Maxwell Air Force Base-Gunter Annex, Ala. This modification is expected to be completed by May 14, 2017.

"Our past performance on Maxwell is strong, and this modification provides an opportunity for Vectrus to continue our excellent performance, and increase our track record of success with this customer," said Ken Hunzeker, chief executive officer and president of Vectrus.

The contract, initially awarded in 2009, was extended in May 2015. At that time, Vectrus was awarded a bridge contract extension at the air force base worth $62 million. The one-year bridge ran through May 2016 and had the potential for an additional two, three-month option periods, which were exercised.

Vectrus provides day-to-day base operations and maintenance at the air base. The 42nd Contracting Squadron, Maxwell AFB, Ala., is the contracting activity.
