FORM AB 1305 DISCLOSURE

Bumble Inc. Voluntary Carbon Market Disclosure Pursuant to AB 1305

December 19, 2025

Introduction

Bumble¹ is committed to providing clear and transparent disclosures regarding our involvement in the voluntary carbon market, our climate goals and emissions reductions targets. The following information has been prepared and is provided for the sole purpose of meeting the disclosure obligations set out under Section 44475 of Division 26 of the California Health and Safety Code (“AB 1305”) and is not intended, nor can it be relied on, to create any other legal relations, rights, or obligations.

§ 44475: Disclosure Information Related to Marketing or Selling Carbon Offsets

As of December X, 2025, Bumble does not market or sell voluntary carbon offsets within the meaning of AB 1305.

§ 44475.1: Disclosure Information Related to Purchased Carbon Offsets

Bumble purchases third-party-verified carbon offsets as part of its efforts to achieve net zero emissions in its company operations.

While Bumble purchases offsets to neutralize certain aspects of the emissions associated with our operations, our primary aim is to reduce our overall footprint through operational efficiencies, supplier engagement, and other initiatives.

¹ References in this disclosure to “Bumble,” the “Company,” “we,” “us,” and “our” refer to Bumble Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries

§ 44475.2: Disclosure Information Related to Bumble’s Emissions Reduction and Net Zero Goal

In 2025, we publicly reported our greenhouse gas (“GHG”) emissions through our Impact Scorecard. We achieved our near-term, science-aligned GHG emissions target:

- Net zero by 2025 for Scope 1, 2 and limited Scope 3 (related to our data processing).

Additional details and a description of our achievement of our goal can be found in our Impact Scorecard here. Since 2023, we have been working with an independent third-party professional services company to calculate our emissions data via the World Resource's Institute's GHG Protocol.

Forward-looking statements

This disclosure contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements reflect the current views of management of Bumble Inc. with respect to, among other things, statements regarding environmental stewardship and governance, and Bumble Inc.'s operations, industry, and business. Forward-looking statements include all statements that are not historical facts. In some cases, you can identify these forward-looking statements by the use of words such as “outlook,” “believe(s),” “expect(s),” “potential,” “continue(s),” “may,” “will,” “should,” “could,” “would,” “seek(s),” “predict(s),” “intend(s),” “trend(s),” “plan(s),” “estimate(s),” “anticipate(s),” “projection(s),” “will likely result” and or the negative version of these words or other comparable words of a future or forward-looking nature. Such forward-looking statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties. Accordingly, there are or will be important factors that could cause actual outcomes or results to differ materially from those indicated in these statements. These factors include, but are not limited to, the factors set forth in our filings made with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) from time to time, including our Annual Report on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q.

For more information regarding these and other risks and uncertainties that we face, see Part I, “Item 1A—Risk Factors” of our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and our subsequent periodic filings which are accessible on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. These factors should not be construed as exhaustive and we caution you that the important factors referenced above may not contain all of the factors that are important to you. Bumble Inc. undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, except as required by law.
