

BUMBLE INC.

NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

I. PURPOSE

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board of Directors”) of Bumble Inc. (the “Company”) shall provide assistance to the Board of Directors by, among other things:

- A. Identifying individuals qualified to become directors, consistent with the criteria approved by the Board of Directors, from time to time, and selecting, or recommending that the Board of Directors select, the director nominees for the next annual meeting of stockholders or to fill vacancies or newly created directorships that may occur between such meetings;
- B. Developing and recommending to the Board of Directors a set of corporate governance principles applicable to the Company and assisting the Board of Directors in complying with them;
- C. Overseeing the evaluation of the Board of Directors;
- D. Recommending members of the Board of Directors to serve on committees of the Board of Directors and evaluating the functions and performance of such committees;
- E. Overseeing and approving the Chief Executive Officer continuity planning process; and
- F. Otherwise taking a leadership role in shaping the corporate governance of the Company.

II. STRUCTURE AND PROCESSES

Membership Requirements

The Committee shall be composed of two or more members of the Board of Directors, and, subject to an election by the Company to rely on the exemption available to “controlled companies” and the applicable transition periods or as may otherwise be permitted by the Nasdaq Listing Rules, each member shall be determined by the Board of Directors to meet the criteria for independence set forth in Nasdaq Rule 5605(a)(2), as well as the Company’s Corporate Governance Guidelines (each such director hereinafter referred to as an “independent director”), and shall have the experience, qualifications, attributes and/or skills deemed necessary by the Board of Directors to serve on the Committee.

Appointment and Removal

The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors, taking into account the recommendation of the Committee, and each member shall serve until such member’s successor is duly elected and qualified or until such member’s earlier resignation, removal, retirement, disqualification or death. The members of the Committee may be removed, with or without cause, by action of the Board of Directors.

Chairperson

Unless a chairperson of the Committee (the “Chairperson”) is selected by the Board of Directors, the members of the Committee shall designate a Chairperson by the majority vote of the full Committee membership. The Chairperson of the Committee will chair all regular sessions of the Committee and is responsible for setting the agendas of Committee meetings. In the absence of the Chairperson of the Committee, the Committee shall select another member to preside.

Delegation to Subcommittees

The Committee may form subcommittees composed of one or more of its members for any purpose that the Committee deems appropriate and may delegate to such subcommittees such power and authority as the Committee deems appropriate.

III. MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet periodically as circumstances dictate, either in person or virtually, provided that all members participating can hear each other. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors or any member of the Committee may call meetings of the Committee. The Chairperson of the Committee, in consultation with the Committee members, shall determine the schedule and frequency of the Committee meetings. The same procedural rules concerning notice of meetings, actions by unanimous consent or telephonic meetings and meetings held by other means of remote communication, and other procedural matters, shall apply to Committee meetings as apply to meetings of the Board of Directors under the Company’s certificate of incorporation or bylaws.

All non-management directors that are not members of the Committee may attend meetings of the Committee but may not vote. Additionally, the Committee may invite to its meetings any director, member of management of the Company and such other persons as it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities. The Committee may also exclude from its meetings any persons it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities.

A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, unless the committee shall consist of two members, in which event one member shall constitute a quorum, and the act of a majority of those present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Committee.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The following functions are expected to be the common recurring activities of the Committee in carrying out its responsibilities. These functions should serve as a guide with the understanding that the Committee may carry out additional functions and adopt additional policies and procedures as may be required or appropriate in light of changing business, legislative, regulatory, legal or other conditions. The Committee may also carry out any other responsibilities and duties delegated to it by the Board of Directors from time to time.

The Committee, in discharging its oversight role, is empowered to study or investigate any matter of interest or concern that the Committee deems appropriate and shall have the authority to retain and terminate outside counsel or other experts for this purpose, including the authority to approve the fees payable to such counsel or experts and any other terms of retention. The Company shall provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to any consultant, legal counsel or other adviser retained by the Committee, as well as funding for the payment of ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties. The Committee also shall have sole authority to retain and to terminate any search firm to be used to assist it in identifying candidates to serve as directors of the Company, including sole authority to approve the fees payable to such search firm and any other terms of retention.

Board Selection, Composition and Evaluation

1. Establish criteria for the selection of nominees for election as directors to serve on the Board of Directors.
2. Subject to paragraph 15 below, identify individuals believed to be qualified as candidates to serve on the Board of Directors and select, or recommend that the Board of Directors select, the nominees for all directorships to be filled by the Board of Directors or by the stockholders at an annual or special meeting. In identifying candidates for membership on the Board of Directors, the Committee shall take into account all factors it considers appropriate, which may include (a) minimum individual qualifications, including strength of character, mature judgment, familiarity with the Company's business and industry, independence of thought and an ability to work collegially and (b) all other factors the Committee considers appropriate, which may include age, diversity of background, existing commitments to other businesses, potential conflicts of interest with other pursuits, legal considerations such as antitrust issues, corporate governance background, various and relevant career experience, relevant technical skills, relevant business or government acumen, financial and accounting background, technology background, compliance background, executive compensation background and the size, composition and combined expertise of the existing Board of Directors. The Committee also may consider the extent to which the candidate would fill a present need on the Board of Directors.

Review and make recommendations to the full Board of Directors, or determine, whether members of the Board of Directors should stand for re-election. Consider matters relating to the retirement of members of the Board of Directors, including term limits or age limits, as well as the performance of such directors.

In the case of a director nominated to fill a vacancy on the Board of Directors due to an increase in the size of the Board of Directors, recommend to the Board of Directors, if applicable, the class of directors in which the director-nominee should serve and in accordance with any applicable provisions of the Company's certificate of incorporation, bylaws or any stockholders agreement to which the Company is a party.

3. Evaluate candidates for nomination for election to the Board of Directors, including those recommended by stockholders on a substantially similar basis as it considers other nominees. The Committee may adopt such procedures for the submission of recommendations as it deems appropriate.

4. Conduct all necessary and appropriate inquiries into the backgrounds and qualifications of possible candidates to serve on the Board of Directors.
5. Review and make recommendations to the Board of Directors, at such times as the Board of Directors deems appropriate, as to the independence of each director.
6. Consider possible conflicts of interest of members of the Board of Directors and executive officers.
7. Review and make recommendations, as the Committee deems appropriate, regarding the composition and size of the Board of Directors in order to ensure the Board of Directors has the requisite expertise and its membership consists of persons with sufficiently diverse and independent backgrounds.
8. Recommend to the Board of Directors as necessary and appropriate an individual to serve as a lead director of the Board of Directors, if applicable, as described in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines.
9. Review and make recommendations, as the Committee deems appropriate and in light of the then current policies of the Board of Directors as reflected in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, as to the continued membership of a director on the Board of Directors in the event of (i) a significant change in such director's personal circumstances (including a change in principal occupation), (ii) a significant ongoing time commitment arises that may be inconsistent with such director's service on the Board of Directors, or (iii) in the case of an independent director, a change in circumstances that would result in such director no longer being considered independent.
10. Oversee evaluations of the Board of Directors and any evaluations conducted by any committee of the Board of Directors.
11. Review and oversee any orientation programs for newly elected members of the Board of Directors and continuing director education programs to assist the Board of Directors in the implementation of such programs.

Committee Selection, Composition and Evaluation

12. Recommend members of the Board of Directors to serve on the committees of the Board of Directors, including the chairperson of each committee, giving consideration to the criteria for service on each committee as set forth in the charter for such committee, as well as to any other factors the Committee deems relevant, and where appropriate, make recommendations regarding the removal of any member of any committee.
13. Establish, monitor and recommend the purpose, structure and functions of the various committees of the Board of Directors, the qualifications and criteria for membership on each committee of the Board of Directors and, as circumstances dictate, make any recommendations regarding periodic rotation of directors among the committees and impose any term limitations of service on any committee of the Board of Directors.

14. Periodically review the charter, composition and performance of each committee of the Board of Directors and make recommendations to the Board of Directors for the creation of additional committees or the elimination of committees of the Board of Directors.

Implementation of Provisions of Stockholders Agreement

15. To the extent there is a stockholders agreement to which the Company is a party (as such may be amended from time to time), governing the composition of the Company's Board of Directors, the Committee shall act appropriately to nominate individuals to serve as directors of the Board of Directors, to fill vacancies on the Board of Directors and to comply with such other matters as may be specified in such agreement, in each case, in accordance with such stockholders agreement.

Corporate Governance

16. Review the adequacy of the certificate of incorporation and by-laws of the Company and recommend to the Board of Directors, as conditions dictate, proposed amendments to the certificate of incorporation and by-laws.
17. Develop and recommend to the Board of Directors a set of corporate governance principles to be included in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and keep abreast of developments with regard to corporate governance to enable the Committee to recommend to the Board of Directors changes to the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines in light of such developments as may be appropriate. The Committee shall review the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines on a periodic basis and propose modifications for the Board's consideration as appropriate.
18. Review policies relating to meetings of the Board of Directors. This may include meeting schedules and locations, meeting agendas and procedures for delivery of materials in advance of meetings.
19. Review and recommend to the Board of Directors the form and amount of director compensation, as well as make recommendations regarding director's and officer's indemnification and insurance matters.
20. Review and approve any stock ownership guidelines for directors and executive officers of the Company.
21. Review significant shareholder relations issues and corporate political or charitable contributions.
22. Review and advise on material environmental, social and governance topics and assist the Board of Directors with respect to its oversight of the Company's programs related to such matters.

Continuity / Succession Planning Process

23. Oversee and approve the Chief Executive Officer continuity planning process. Review and evaluate the succession plans relating to the Chief Executive Officer and make recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to the selection of individuals to occupy this position.

Reports

24. Report regularly to the Board of Directors including:
 - (i) following meetings and unanimous consents of the Committee; and
 - (ii) with respect to such other matters as are relevant to the Committee's discharge of its responsibilities.

The Committee shall provide such recommendations to the Board of Directors as the Committee may deem appropriate. The report to the Board of Directors may take the form of an oral report by the Chairperson or any other member of the Committee designated by the Committee to make such report.

25. Maintain minutes or other records of meetings and activities of the Committee.

V. EVALUATION

It is expected that the Committee will review and evaluate its performance at least annually, including by reviewing its compliance with this Charter. In addition, it is expected that the Committee shall review and reassess, at least annually, the adequacy of this Charter and recommend to the Board of Directors any proposed changes to this Charter that the Committee considers necessary or desirable. The Committee may conduct such evaluations and reviews in such manner as it deems appropriate.
