

BUMBLE INC.
SUPPLEMENTAL CODE OF ETHICS FOR SENIOR FINANCIAL OFFICERS

Bumble Inc. (the “Company”) has a Code of Conduct applicable to all directors and employees of the Company. The Chief Executive Officer, the President and all senior financial officers, including the Chief Financial Officer and principal accounting officer (collectively, the “Senior Financial Officers”), are required to comply with the policies set forth therein. In addition to the Code of Conduct and associated policies, the Senior Financial Officers are required to comply with this Supplemental Code of Ethics, the purpose of which is to promote honest and ethical conduct and compliance with applicable law, particularly as related to the maintenance of the Company’s financial books and records and the preparation of its financial statements.

Pursuant to this Supplemental Code, the Senior Financial Officers should:

1. Engage in and promote ethical conduct.
2. Carry out their responsibilities honestly, in good faith and with integrity, due care and diligence, exercising at all times their best independent judgment.
3. Assist in the production of full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in reports and documents that the Company files with, or submits to, the Securities and Exchange Commission and other regulators and in other public communications made by the Company. Accordingly, it is the responsibility of each Senior Financial Officer promptly to bring to the attention of the Company’s Disclosure Committee any material information of which he or she may become aware that affects the disclosures made by the Company in its public filings and other public communications.
4. Promptly bring to the attention of the Chief Legal Officer and Chief Financial Officer and to the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors (the “Audit Committee”) any information he or she may have concerning (a) significant deficiencies in the design or operation of internal controls which could adversely affect the Company’s ability to record, process, summarize and report financial data or (b) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company’s financial reporting, disclosures or internal controls.
5. Comply with applicable laws, rules and regulations of federal, state and local governments and other appropriate regulatory agencies and promptly bring to the attention of the Chief Legal Officer any information he or she may have concerning evidence of a material violation of the securities or other laws, rules or regulations applicable to the Company and the operation of its business, by the Company or any agent thereof, unless the evidence of such material violation involves the Chief Legal Officer in which case the matter should be brought to the attention of the Chief Executive Officer and the Audit Committee.
6. Promptly bring to the attention of the Chief Legal Officer any violation of the Code of Conduct or this Supplemental Code, including any potential conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships, involving any management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company’s financial reporting, disclosure controls or internal control over financial reporting, unless the violation involves the Chief Legal Officer in which case the matter should be brought to the attention of the Chief Executive Officer and the Audit Committee.

7. Never take, directly or indirectly, any action to coerce, manipulate, mislead or fraudulently influence the Company's independent auditors in the performance of their audit or review of the Company's financial statements.

Each Senior Financial Officer will be held accountable for adherence to this Supplemental Code and the Audit Committee shall determine, or designate appropriate persons to determine, appropriate actions to be taken in the event of violations of this Supplemental Code by a Senior Financial Officer, up to and including termination. Violations of this Supplemental Code may also constitute violations of law which may subject a Senior Financial Officer and the Company to criminal and civil penalties.

Any waiver, including an implicit waiver, from this Supplemental Code for a Senior Financial Officer will be promptly disclosed as required by law or regulation. Any change to this Supplemental Code will also be promptly disclosed as required by law or regulation.

Any questions regarding the application of this Supplemental Code should be promptly directed to the Chief Legal Officer.
