List Ranks North America's Largest 500 Technology Integrators

Newtown, PA, June 17, 2015 - EPAM Systems (NYSE:EPAM), a leading provider of software product development services, today announced it has been named to The Channel Company's 2015 CRN® Solution Provider 500. The annual list, spanning eight categories, from hardware and software sales to managed IT services, recognizes the top revenue-generating technology integrators, MSPs and IT consultants in North America. Solution providers are ranked based on revenue, determined by product and services sales during 2014.

"We are very excited to see our continued growth reflected in our higher position on the annual CRN ranking list," said Anthony Conte, CFO, EPAM. "Last year, acquisitions were a key component in driving our growth and, this year, we remain focused on potential targets that would add to our already strong capabilities and allow us to continue on a similar growth trajectory."

"The companies represented here are truly dedicated to the needs of customers today. With an evolving IT landscape, this prestigious list serves as a valuable industry resource to help vendors navigate the solution provider community and identify the best partners for their business," said Robert Faletta, CEO, The Channel Company. "We congratulate the featured solution providers for their forward-thinking approach to solutions sales and look ahead to their continued success."

A sample of the 2015 Solution Provider 500 list will be featured in the June issue of CRN, and online at www.CRN.com.
