

EPAM Expands Five-Year Product Development Relationship With Kronos®, Joins Workforce Dimensions™ Technology Partner Program

November 14, 2017 5:00 PM EST

The company will leverage its digital platform engineering experience to develop early extensions to the product

NEWTOWN, Pa., Nov. 14, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- EPAM Systems, Inc. (NYSE:EPAM), a leading global provider of digital platform engineering and software development services, and Kronos Incorporated, a leading provider of workforce management and human capital management cloud solutions, today announced that EPAM has joined the Workforce Dimensions Technology Partner Program. Leveraging its digital platform engineering expertise, experience design and integration skills, EPAM will utilize its hands-on experience working with the workforce management solution, Workforce Dimensions, to deliver first-to-market innovations with Kronos.

"Workforce Dimensions is a next-generation solution built for today's rapidly changing workforce. Using our deep understanding of Kronos' solutions and our product development expertise, EPAM will take a leading role in the development of new product extensions," said Regina Viadro, VP, Co-Head North America, EPAM. "We are proud of our successful partnership with Kronos and look forward to continuing to help companies adapt to industry trends and withstand disruption in workforce management."

Workforce Dimensions is built on the Kronos D5 platform and features a foundational artificial intelligence engine that enables predictive and intelligent solutions, fast in-memory computing to process large volumes of data, a domain model with flexible and adaptable rules to manage suite interactions, and a unified information architecture that eliminates the need for data warehousing and simplifies access to analytics for users. With its open and public API, Workforce Dimensions can be seamlessly integrated with other systems through pre-built connectors to deliver unique and innovative workforce management capabilities.

"Workforce Dimensions from Kronos represents an entirely new category of workforce management solution, a first-of-its-kind SaaS platform designed to provide a new level of intelligence, engagement and productivity for an ever-changing workforce," said Bill Bartow, vice president of global product management, Kronos. "The software is designed to be completely open and extensible making it possible for organizations such as EPAM to deliver innovative new add-ons for Workforce Dimensions that will not just create additional value for customers, but truly help shape the future of workplace technology."

EPAM has worked with Kronos over the past five years helping to expand their market-leading product suites, including Workforce Central, Workforce Ready and Workforce Dimensions. Workforce Dimensions was revealed at KronosWorks™, the world's largest workforce information exchange, in Las Vegas, Nevada this week.
