

IAMGOLD CORPORATION
BOARD OF DIRECTORS MANDATE

1. Purpose

The primary function of the directors (individually a "Director" and collectively the "Board") of IAMGOLD Corporation (the "Corporation") is to provide stewardship over the Corporation and to review the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. The Board has the responsibility to supervise the management of the Corporation which is responsible for the day-to-day conduct of the business of the Corporation. The fundamental objectives of the Board are to enhance and preserve long-term shareholder value and to review the Corporation's business conduct. In performing its functions, the Board should consider the legitimate interests that stakeholders, such as employees, customers and communities, may have in the Corporation. In carrying out its stewardship responsibility, the Board, through the Chief Executive Officer (the "CEO"), should set the standards of conduct for the Corporation.

2. Procedure and Organization

The Board operates by delegating certain responsibilities and duties set out below to management or committees of the Board and by reserving certain responsibilities and duties for the Board. The Board retains the responsibility for reviewing its affairs, including selecting its chair and constituting committees.

In the event that the chair of the Board is not "independent" for the purposes of applicable securities laws, the Board shall also appoint a lead independent director.

3. Responsibilities and Duties

The principal responsibilities and duties of the Board fall into a number of categories which are summarized below.

(a) Legal Requirements

- (i) The Board has the overall responsibility to review compliance with applicable legal requirements and that documents and records have been properly prepared, approved and maintained.

 - (iii) with the advice of the Human Resources and Compensation Committee and the CEO (A) approve objectives that the members of the Corporation's executive leadership team (the "Executives"), other than the CEO, are responsible for achieving; and (B) approve the compensation of the Executives other than the CEO.
 - (iv) provide advice and counsel to the CEO in the execution of the duties of the CEO;
 - (v) with the advice of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, develop, to the extent considered appropriate, approve position descriptions for the chair of the Board, the lead independent director (as applicable), individual directors, the chair of each committee of the Board;
 - (vi) with the advice of the CEO, approve the appointment and replacement of all Executives other than the CEO;
 - (vii) with the advice of the Human Resources and Compensation Committee, consider, and if considered appropriate, approve incentive-compensation plans and equity-based plans of the Corporation; and
 - (viii) review training and development of senior management and members of the Board and to provide orderly succession of management, including the CEO and other Executives.
- (e) Integrity of Management
- The Board has the responsibility, to the extent considered appropriate, to satisfy itself as to the integrity of the CEO and other Executives and officers of the Corporation and to review and assess the extent to which the CEO and other Executives and officers are creating a culture of integrity throughout the Corporation.
- (f) Policies, Procedures and Compliance
- The Board is responsible for the review of the following matters and may rely on management of the Corporation to the extent appropriate in connection with addressing such matters:
- (i) compliance with applicable laws and regulations and to appropriate ethical and moral standards;
 - (ii) approving and monitoring compliance with significant policies and procedures by which the business of the Corporation is conducted;
 - (iii) with the advice of the Human Resources and Compensation Committee, establishing executive compensation policies applicable to the CEO and Executives to ensure that the compensation paid to such individuals is competitive within the industry and that the form of compensation aligns the interests of each senior officer with those of the Corporation;

- (iv) with the advice of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, monitoring the corporate governance practices and altering such practices when circumstances warrant;
- (v) with the advice of the Sustainability Committee, setting appropriate environmental standards for operations and ensuring the Corporation operates in material compliance with environmental laws and legislation; and
- (vi) with the advice of the Technical Committee, establishing appropriate health and safety policies and programs for its employees in the workplace.

(g) Reporting and Communication

The Board is responsible for the review of the following matters and may rely on management of the Corporation to the extent appropriate in connection with addressing such matters:

- (i) policies and programs to enable the Corporation to communicate effectively with management, shareholders, other stakeholders and the public generally;
- (ii) with the advice of the Audit and Finance Committee, reviewing the adequacy of the continuous disclosure program including reporting financial results and other required disclosure of the Corporation to shareholders, other security holders and regulators such that material information is disseminated on a timely and regular basis;
- (iii) with the advice of the Audit and Finance Committee, reviewing the reporting of financial results, which reporting is to be fair and in accordance with applicable generally accepted accounting principles;
- (iv) with the advice of the Audit and Finance Committee, reviewing the timely and accurate reporting of any developments that could have a significant and material impact on the value of the Corporation; and
- (v) reporting annually to the shareholders of the Corporation on the affairs of the Corporation for the preceding year.

(h) Monitoring and Acting

The Board is responsible for the oversight and review of the following matters and may rely on management of the Corporation to the extent appropriate in connection with addressing such matters:

- (i) monitoring the Corporation's progress in achieving its goals and objectives and revising and, through management, altering strategic and tactical plans of the Corporation in response to changing circumstances;
- (ii) considering taking action when performance falls short of the goals and objectives or when other special circumstances warrant;
- (iii) reviewing and approving material transactions involving the Corporation, including material acquisitions and dispositions of assets, material capital expenditures, or issuances of securities;

- (iv) implementation and ongoing adequate internal control and management information systems;
- (v) with the advice of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, assessing the individual performance of each Director and the collective performance of the Board; and
- (vi) with the advice of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, reviewing the size and composition of the Board as a whole to facilitate more effective decision-making by the Corporation.

4. Board's Expectations of Management

The Board expects each member of management to perform such duties, as may be reasonably assigned by the Board from time to time, faithfully, diligently, to the best of his or her ability and in the best interests of the Corporation. Each member of management is expected to devote substantially all of his or her business time and efforts to the performance of such duties. Management is expected to act in compliance with and to ensure that the Corporation is in compliance with all laws, rules and regulations applicable to the Corporation.

5. Responsibilities and Expectations of Directors

Directors should exercise their duties and responsibilities in a manner that is consistent with this mandate and with the best interests of the Corporation and its shareholders generally. The responsibilities and expectations of each Director are as follows:

(a) Commitment and Attendance

All Directors should make every effort to attend all meetings of the Board and meetings of committees of which they are members. Members may attend by telephone or video conference.

(b) Participation in Meetings

Each Director should be sufficiently familiar with the business of the Corporation, including its financial position and capital structure and the risks and competition it faces in order to actively and effectively participate in the deliberations of the Board and of each committee on which the Director is a member. Upon request, management should make appropriate personnel available to answer any questions a Director may have about any aspect of the business of the Corporation. Directors should also review the materials provided by management and the Corporation's advisors in advance of meetings of the Board and committees and should arrive prepared to discuss the matters presented.

(c) Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

The Corporation has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics to deal with the business conduct of Directors and officers of the Corporation. Directors should be familiar with and abide by the provisions of the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics.

(d) Other Directorships

The Corporation values the experience Directors bring from other boards on which they serve, but recognizes that those boards may also present demands on a Director's time and availability, and may also present conflicts issues. Directors should advise the chair of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee before accepting any new membership on other boards of directors or any other affiliation with other businesses or governmental bodies which involve a significant commitment by the Director.

(e) Contact with Management

All Directors may contact the CEO at any time to discuss any aspect of the business of the Corporation. Directors also have complete access to other members of management. The Board expects that there will be frequent opportunities for Directors to meet with the CEO and other members of management in Board and committee meetings and in other formal or informal settings.

(f) Confidentiality

The proceedings and deliberations of the Board and its committees are, and shall remain, confidential. Each Director should maintain the confidentiality of information received in connection with his or her services as a Director of the Corporation.

6. Qualifications and Directors' Orientation

Directors should have the highest personal and professional ethics and values and be committed to advancing the interests of the Corporation. They should possess competencies, skills and personal characteristics required to add value to the Corporation in light of the opportunities and risks facing the Corporation and its strategic direction. The CEO is responsible for the provision of an orientation and education program for new Directors, in consultation with the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

7. Meetings

The Board should meet on at least a quarterly basis and should hold additional meetings as required or appropriate to consider other matters. Management may be asked to participate in any meeting of the Board. In addition, the Board should meet as it considers appropriate to consider strategic planning for the Corporation. Financial and other appropriate information should be made available to the Directors in advance of Board meetings. Attendance at each meeting of the Board should be recorded.

8. Independence

The Board has the responsibility to ensure that appropriate structures and procedures are in place to permit the Board to function independently of management, including having a majority of directors who are "independent" for the purposes of applicable securities laws and stock exchange requirements. The Board, in consultation with the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will, at least annually, review the relationship of each director and the Company to determine if each director is or remains "independent" within the meaning applicable securities laws and stock exchange requirements. In addition, at each meeting, the Board shall hold an in camera session consisting of only independent directors, unless such a session is not considered necessary by the independent directors present.

In determining the independence of any member of the Board, the Board will consider all relevant factors, including any relationship a director has with the Company, its management, its shareholders and other direct or indirect material relationships which could, in the view of the Board, be reasonably expected to interfere with the exercise of a Board member's independent judgment.

9. Committees

The Board has established the following standing committees: (i) Audit and Finance Committee; (ii) Human Resources and Compensation Committee; (iii) Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee; (iv) Sustainability Committee; and (v) Technical Committee in order to assist the Board in discharging its responsibilities. Special committees of the Board may be established from time to time to assist the Board in connection with specific matters. The chair of each committee should report to the Board following meetings of the committee. The Board should review the mandate of each standing committee annually.

10. Evaluation

The Board and each standing committee should conduct a self-evaluation at least annually to assess their effectiveness. In addition, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee should periodically consider the mix of skills and experience that Directors bring to the Board and assess, on an ongoing basis, whether the Board has the necessary composition to perform its oversight function effectively.

Each Director will be subject to an annual evaluation of his or her individual performance.

11. Resources

The Board has the authority to retain independent legal, accounting and other consultants. The Board may request any officer or employee of the Corporation or outside counsel or the external/internal auditors to attend a meeting of the Board or to meet with any member of, or consultant to, the Board.

Directors are permitted to engage an outside legal or other adviser at the expense of the Corporation where for example he or she is placed in a conflict position through activities of the Corporation, but any such engagement shall be subject to the prior approval of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

12. Approval Date

Last updated, reviewed and approved by the Board on November 8, 2022.
