“Regions is committed to the energy and power industries and hiring Ryan continues our expansion of the energy and natural resources platform,” said Tate. “Our energy and power clients want strategic ideas and financial advice as they look to expand by utilizing the capital markets. We are excited to add client coverage professionals with significant industry experience across loan syndications, public debt and equity markets along with significant advisory capabilities. Ryan’s talent and experience will strengthen our ability to provide value-added solutions to our clients and we are excited to have him on our team.”

Stash brings more than 16 years of investment banking, capital markets, and consulting experience. Stash has originated, structured, and executed numerous complex, event-driven financings and provided advisory services for upstream and midstream clients. Over his career at Wells Fargo Securities, Stash has a demonstrated history of developing relationships and originating lead roles that significantly impact a broader capital markets and advisory platform. Stash earned an MBA from the McCombs School of Business, a Masters in Professional Accounting, and a Bachelor of Business Administration, all at the University of Texas at Austin.
