“Being named a Gallup Exceptional Workplace affirms Regions’ commitment to making associate engagement a priority,” said Regions Financial Corp. President and CEO John Turner. “This award speaks to the strength of our culture and is an example of how every one of us contributes to making Regions an exceptional place to work and an employer of choice.”

Gallup research includes studies of millions of employees across all industries and consistently shows the best workplaces share an intentional focus on engagement and their culture. As a winner, Regions differentiates itself by investing in employees and putting people development at the center of its business strategy.

This award is particularly meaningful after another year of unpredictability in the workplace, during which Gallup found that Regions continued to engage and develop its associates amid the disruption brought about by the pandemic.

“Gallup’s 2022 GEWA winners have steered their organizations through another unprecedented and challenging year,” said Jim Harter, Gallup’s chief scientist of workplace management and wellbeing. “They didn’t slow down or hit ‘pause’ during times of uncertainty. They stayed true to their organizational values. Gallup commends all of the 2022 GEWA winners for their resiliency, determination and commitment to making their people a priority.”
