NEWS RELEASE

Cineverse Added to Multiple Russell Indexes Including 3000E, Microcap, Growth, and Value Segments

2025-07-02

LOS ANGELES, July 2, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Cineverse Corp. (NASDAQ: CNVS), a global streaming technology and entertainment company, today announced its inclusion in multiple FTSE Russell indexes, effective June 29 and June 30, 2025, as part of the annual reconstitution of the Russell U.S. Indexes.

Cineverse has been added to the following indexes:

- Russell 3000E® Index (Effective June 30, 2025)
- Russell 3000E® Growth Index (Effective June 30, 2025)
- Russell 3000E® Value Index (Effective June 29, 2025)
- Russell Microcap® Index (Effective June 30, 2025)
- Russell Microcap® Growth Index (Effective June 30, 2025)
- Russell Microcap® Value Index (Effective June 30, 2025)

Inclusion in these indexes expands Cineverse's visibility across a wide range of institutional investors and index-tracking funds. The Russell indexes are broadly used by asset managers and institutional investors as benchmarks for passive and active investment strategies.

"We're honored to be included in multiple Russell indexes this year, including both growth and value segments," said Chris McGurk, Chairman and CEO of Cineverse. "This distinction highlights the unique positioning of our business: strong growth momentum coupled with a value profile that we believe remains underappreciated in the broader market. As we continue scaling our wide-release theatrical slate, monetizing our technology platforms, and expanding our streaming channels, we believe there is significant upside ahead."
