Cineverse Announces the Release Date for 'WOLF CRE3K' - The Third Installment of the Hit International Horror Film Franchise

2026-11-19

The Outback's favorite serial killer, Mick Taylor, will return to theaters on March 19, 2027

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 19, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Cineverse Corp. (Nasdaq: CNVS), an entertainment technology company and studio, announced today that WOLF CRE3K (previously titled Wolf Creek: Legacy) will be coming to theaters March 19, 2027. The third installment of the popular franchise, WOLF CRE3K welcomes back the iconic and sadistic killer, Mick Taylor, played by John Jarratt.

In WOLF CRE3K, a family of American tourists wander innocently into Mick Taylor's hunting grounds. When the parents sacrifice themselves to save their children, the kids find themselves alone, lost and hunted in the vast Australian wilderness. Find the sneak peek here.

Joining Jarratt in the cast is Ditch Davey (Spartacus, War Machine), Laura Gordon (Late Night with the Devil, Undertow), Stacy Clausen (Leviticus,The Mosquito Bowl), Charli Penton (Neighbours, Insidious: The Bleeding World), Anni Finsterer (Sweet Country, The Gloaming), Meg Fraser (Barons, Welcome Back To My Channel), Carlos Sanson Jnr (Bump, Primitive War), Maria Thattil (Empire City, Mother and Son), Connor Pullinger (The Hunting, Treasure & Dirt) and in his first acting role, Michael Teng, best known as one of the 'Travel Guides' in the popular Australian television series. South Australian Sean Lahiff (Carnifex) directs the new feature, with a script by Duncan Samarasinghe.

As previously announced, Cineverse has exclusive North American distribution rights to the film. The first two films of the franchise have grossed more than $35 million globally at theaters according to Box Office Mojo. Australia's most well-known and successful horror franchise, Wolf Creek was first released in 2005 after premiering at Sundance Film Festival and Cannes Film Festival and dubbed by Quentin Tarantino as "the scariest Australian movie ever made". Its sequel premiered at the Venice Film Festival in 2013 and was followed by two spin-off television series made for Australian streamer Stan and seen worldwide.
