Atlantic City, NJ (May 22, 2025) - Atlantic City's casino destination that has it all, Tropicana Atlantic City will offer guests yet another reason to visit with the debut of the all-new Solana Tower, featuring reimagined rooms and suites in the resort's west wing. The project will commence later this year and is expected to debut in early 2026, offering guests the ultimate escape.

The 604-room and suite transformation strengthens Tropicana's commitment to maintaining its status as a leading resort in Atlantic City while ushering in a new era of luxury and comfort for its guests. Solana Tower will draw inspiration from Tropicana's iconic Palm Walk, known for its grand palm trees around the dynamic casino floor.

"We are thrilled to offer our guests a new, elevated hospitality experience with the addition of Solana Tower," said Joe Giunta, Senior Vice President & General Manager for Tropicana. "Bright, breezy, and brimming with character—these room enhancements blend playful coastal charm with a nod to vintage Atlantic City. The new rooms offer a vibrant, welcoming escape that's as fun as it is approachable."

The rooms feature soft wood tones, tropical patterns, and bold accents that set a light and inviting tone. Curated artwork and thoughtful details offer a fresh, stylish stay that feels both relaxed and refined.

Work on the renovation is scheduled to begin after Labor Day with an anticipation completion date of January 2026. Reservations are slated to go live in Fall 2025.
