Westgate SuperBook to be powered by Caesars Sportsbook, enhancing the guest experience while honoring its legendary legacy

LAS VEGAS (April 21, 2026) – Caesars Entertainment, Inc. (NASDAQ: CZR) (“Caesars”) and Westgate Las Vegas Resort & Casino today announced a new partnership under which Caesars Sportsbook will operate the Westgate SuperBook, pending Nevada Gaming Commission approval. The partnership brings together the SuperBook’s storied legacy and expansive footprint with Caesars Sportsbook’s platform and market-leading sports betting menu, creating a next-generation sports wagering experience. Widely recognized as one of the largest and best sportsbook viewing experiences in the world, the Westgate SuperBook has long set the standard in Las Vegas for scale, atmosphere, and immersive sports viewing.

Under the partnership, the legendary sportsbook will operate as the Westgate SuperBook, powered by Caesars Sportsbook. With a planned transition prior to football season, Caesars will oversee race and sportsbook operations and technology, expanding wagering options and access while preserving the identity, scale and atmosphere that have defined the SuperBook for decades. The Westgate Las Vegas SuperContest® franchise will remain an integral part of the SuperBook experience.

As part of the enhanced experience, sports fans will enjoy Same Game Parlays, expanded parlay offerings, and live in-play wagering across a wide range of professional and collegiate sports, both in-person and on the Caesars Sportsbook app. Additionally, Caesars Sportsbook will introduce self-service betting kiosks inside the SuperBook and throughout the resort, providing faster, round-the-clock access to wagering. Guests will be able to complete in-person registration for the Caesars Sportsbook app while on property and also seamlessly use their account and manage funds seamlessly across the platform’s Universal Digital Wallet in participating markets for convenient deposits and withdrawals.

“The Westgate SuperBook is one of the most recognizable sportsbook destinations in the world, and we are proud to partner with Westgate on the next chapter of its evolution,” said Eric Hession, President of Caesars Digital. “By powering the SuperBook with our sportsbook platform, we’re combining a legendary sportsbook environment with a modern betting menu and added convenience that reflects how sports fans want to wager today.”

“Since opening in 1986, our SuperBook has been a defining part of the Las Vegas sports betting landscape,” said Cami Christensen, President & General Manager of Westgate Las Vegas Resort & Casino. “We are incredibly proud of that legacy and thrilled to partner with Caesars Sportsbook to take it to the next level, combining decades of history with innovation, scale, and an even more dynamic guest experience.”

Additional details regarding the operational transition and on-property introduction of the Westgate SuperBook, powered by Caesars Sportsbook will be announced later.
