LAS VEGAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- As the FORMULA 1 HEINEKEN LAS VEGAS GRAND PRIX returns to the iconic Las Vegas Strip in 2026, Caesars Entertainment is once again putting guests at the center of the action with race week festivities, luxury accommodations, superstar culinary experiences and exclusive viewing opportunities. From the company's collection of eight resorts, all located within the track footprint, Caesars is delivering immersive experiences designed to bring guests closer than ever to the thrill of the race.

"We're thrilled to welcome the FORMULA 1 HEINEKEN LAS VEGAS GRAND PRIX back to the heart of The Strip," said Sean McBurney, Chief Commercial Officer and Regional President for Caesars Entertainment. "This year, we're raising the bar with dynamic viewing experiences across the city, an ultra-exclusive party at Soleia Beach Club atop the newly opened Vanderpump Hotel for select Caesars Rewards members where guests can mingle with Buddy V, Lisa Vanderpump and more, and intimate culinary experiences curated by our celebrity chef partners. World-class racing deserves world-class hospitality, and no city delivers that like Las Vegas."

2026 offerings include:

- GIADA Viewing Experience at The Vanderpump Hotel
 - Guests can take in the race action from GIADA alongside celebrity chef and television personality Giada De Laurentiis (Saturday only). Located in the heart of The Strip at The Vanderpump Hotel, fans will enjoy elevated hospitality and all-inclusive food and drinks. The experience will feature Strip views from the open-air restaurant overlooking the main straight. When not watching from the open windows, guests can take in the live race feed on TVs around the venue while indulging in cocktails and bites.
