Caesars Entertainment Recognized as One of the 50 Most Community-Minded Companies in the U.S. for 11th Consecutive Year

2025-06-04

The company devoted more than $71 million in total community investment in 2024

LAS VEGAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Points of Light, the world's largest organization dedicated to increasing volunteering, named Caesars Entertainment a 2025 honoree of The Civic 50, recognizing the top community-minded companies in the United States according to an annual survey for the 11th year.

For more than a decade, The Civic 50 has served as the national standard for corporate citizenship and showcases how leading companies are moving social impact and community to the core of their business. This comprehensive survey for companies with annual revenues of at least $1 billion evaluates the scale, sophistication and impact of employee volunteering, community engagement and corporate philanthropy work.

"Caesars Entertainment is dedicated to giving back to our communities. It's a privilege for us to have the ability to do so through multiple channels, including monetary donations and volunteerism," said Kiersten Flint, SVP of Corporate Social Responsibility and Internal Communications for Caesars Entertainment. "We have a very dedicated Team Member base of HERO volunteers who go out into our communities across the country and donate their time and money to making our communities better. So much so that we launched an Extraordinary HERO program last year to celebrate these Team Members who make our Company and the world a better place. It's an honor to be recognized by Points of Life for the 11th year and celebrate our team's dedication."

Caesars Foundation donated more than $3.4 million to various non-profit organizations across the country, which is part of an overall community investment from Caesars Entertainment of more than $71 million in 2024. Caesars Team Members also dedicated 93,000 volunteer hours within their communities throughout the year.

“In an ever-evolving landscape, companies are looking to ensure that they can meet the needs of their communities, customers, and stakeholders,” said Jennifer Sirangelo, president and CEO, Points of Light. “Companies like Caesars Entertainment are leading the way in showing how social impact benefits their employees’ well-being, strengthens the communities where they do business, and brings value and meaning to their work. Their efforts provide a model for others looking to bring the benefits of volunteering and social impact to their workforce and they’re extremely deserving of this recognition.”

The Civic 50 survey is administered by True Impact, and the results are analyzed by VeraWorks. The survey instrument consists of quantitative and multiple-choice questions that inform the scoring process. The Civic 50 is the only survey and ranking system that exclusively measures corporate community engagement.

Caesars Entertainment will soon release its 16th annual CSR report, sharing the Company's work in the three categories of its CSR framework, PEOPLE PLANET PLAY. The framework contains priorities representing the Company's most important business impacts on its people, the community and the environment.
