LAS VEGAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Las Vegas' favorite tropical oasis has entered a new era just in time for pool season. A $20 million project, the all-new GO Pool at the iconic Flamingo Las Vegas will feature a multi-pool complex with a 30-seat swim-up bar. The perfect atmosphere for high-energy parties, the GO Pool is set to redefine the city's pool scene this spring.

"For decades, the famous GO Pool has been a destination favorite during pool season, and we recognize our guests' loyalty to the brand," said Dan Walsh, SVP and General Manager of Flamingo Las Vegas. "This project is not a renovation; it's a completely different pool complex that was constructed from the ground up. The team has worked tirelessly for months to develop a new GO Pool that honors the rich history of the Flamingo with a stylish and modern aesthetic inspired by the resort's origins. We look forward to offering an elevated pool experience and exceptional VIP service to our guests."

Spanning nearly 1.5 acres, the GO Pool complex will offer five distinct pools and experiences at varying levels throughout the space. Additional highlights include temperature-controlled pools, 33 VIP cabanas with elegant furnishings, cool-deck surfacing, night lighting and a robust sound system.

The main pool will feature a swim-up bar covered by a large canopy with in-water seating for 30 guests. A 50-foot-wide “rain curtain” waterfall and adjoining grotto pool will cascade into the main pool. Sitting at the crest of the waterfall, high-energy DJs will keep the party going seven days a week. The entire oasis is enveloped by 55 towering palm trees and 35 additional tree varieties that were transplanted from the original GO Pool complex.

For a VIP experience, guests can rent cabanas and in-water couches and daybeds with exclusive access to the three smaller pools that are elevated from the main pool. Complimentary poolside lounge chairs will also be available on a first-come, first-served basis.

The reimagined GO Pool menu will feature refreshing beverage offerings, from sharable cocktails to summertime staples like frozen daquiris and signature mojitos. Guests can also enjoy delicious poolside bites from the full kitchen.

A collaboration between Pacific Custom Pools and MO+A design studio, the new design combines inspiration from the iconic Flamingo’s mid-century modern and retro-deco architecture with a contemporary beach resort vibe featuring playful pastels and soft, earthy tones.

The GO Pool is part of Flamingo’s multi-phase transformation project, where the resort has welcomed several new offerings, including Pinky’s by Vanderpump, Gordon Ramsay Burger and Havana 1957.

GO Pool is at the south entrance of Flamingo Las Vegas near the rideshare pick-up and drop-off area and is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. Both hotel and non-hotel guests 21 and older can enjoy complimentary general admission to the GO Pool on a first-come, first-served basis. Guests of all ages can enjoy Flamingo’s Family Pool adjacent to the GO Pool.
