LAS VEGAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- The all-new Go Pool at Flamingo Las Vegas is ready to make a splash this pool season. Following a $20 million transformation, the multi-pool complex offers the perfect atmosphere for high-energy parties and is now open for guests 21 and older.

Spanning nearly 1.5 acres, Go Pool features five distinct pools and experiences:

- Main Pool – The standout feature of the main pool is the swim-up bar. Covered by a large canopy, it features four TVs. This pool also offers a shallow wet deck with in-water daybeds and couches. The main pool is directly below the DJ booth, which sits atop the grotto and waterfall.
- Grotto Pool – A 50-foot-wide “rain curtain” waterfall above the grotto pool cascades into the main pool. Sitting at the waterfall’s crest, high-energy DJs keep the party going seven days a week. In the grotto, guests can lounge on in-water benches inside the pool, which is fully shaded and behind the waterfall.

- Circular VIP Pool – Tucked away from the main pool, the circular pool offers an oasis for VIPs looking for a chill, relaxed vibe. Cabanas and daybeds surround the 40-foot round infinity pool. This secluded area also features a 15-foot waterfall, which provides a beautiful backdrop for a photo moment.
- Rectangular VIP Pool – Visitors can enjoy the ultimate VIP party experience at the rectangular pool with cabanas, daybeds and unobstructed views of the DJ booth. This 60-foot-long pool also includes a custom water feature and shallow wet deck area.
- Free-form VIP Pool – Featuring three separate shallow wet deck areas, the free-form pool offers cabanas and in-water daybeds for guests who want to be close to the action in the main pool while enjoying a VIP experience.

For an exclusive experience, guests can rent cabanas and daybeds with access to the three smaller VIP pools. Complimentary poolside lounge chairs around the main pool are also available on a first-come, first-served basis.

“It’s been an incredible year at the Flamingo following the openings of Pinky’s by Vanderpump, Gordon Ramsay Burger and Havana 1957,” said Dan Walsh, SVP and General Manager of the resort. “The celebration continues. Our all-new Go Pool is the ultimate summer destination that not only honors the legacy of the Flamingo but also provides an elevated, new experience for both loyal fans and first-time guests alike.”

A collaboration between Caesars Entertainment and MO+A design studio, the new design combines inspiration from the iconic Flamingo’s mid-century modern and retro-deco architecture with a contemporary beach resort vibe featuring playful pastels and soft, earthy tones. The entire oasis is enveloped by nearly 200 trees, including 90 palm trees and tree varieties that were transplanted from the original Go Pool complex. Other highlights include temperature-controlled pools, cool-deck surfacing, night lighting and a robust sound system.

The reimaged Go Pool menu offers refreshing beverages, from sharable cocktails to summertime staples like frozen daiquiris and signature mojitos in souvenir cups. Guests can sip on the Cucumber Splash, made with Hendrick’s Gin, Chateau aloe liqueur, cucumber syrup, lime juice and club soda or the Flamingo Fizz, featuring Tito’s Handmade Vodka, lychee liqueur, ruby red grapefruit syrup, lemon juice and club soda.

Go Pool’s full kitchen offers delicious poolside bites, such as breakfast items, sharable dishes, salads, sandwiches and bowls. Menu highlights include the Street Taco Trio, featuring birria beef or chicken tinga street tacos with diced onions, cilantro, sour cream, charred tomato and chipotle salsa. Visitors can also enjoy the Southwest Bowl, made with steamed rice, black beans, roasted sweetcorn, avocado and cotija cheese. Another tasty option is the Day Club Sandwich with toasted multigrain bread, smoked turkey, bacon, avocado, Swiss cheese, lettuce, tomato, mayonnaise and French fries. The party platters are perfect for groups lounging around the cabanas and daybeds.

Go Pool is at the south entrance of Flamingo Las Vegas near the rideshare pick-up and drop-off area and is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. Both hotel and non-hotel guests 21 and older can enjoy complimentary general admission to the Go Pool on a first-come, first-served basis. Visitors of all ages can experience Flamingo's Family Pool adjacent to the Go Pool.
