LAS VEGAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Restaurant Guy Savoy at Caesars Palace has been named the highest-ranking Las Vegas restaurant in the 2026 Top 1,000 Restaurants list by LaListe, the prestigious global culinary guide. This honor arrives just months before the celebrated dining destination marks its 20th anniversary in May.

Adding to the brand's prestige, Restaurant Guy Savoy Paris has also been recognized as the "No. 1 Restaurant in the World" by LaListe – an achievement it has held for nine consecutive years.

Michelin-starred Chef Guy Savoy's Caesars Palace location remains his only restaurant outside of France, delivering the same uncompromising standards and meticulous attention to detail that define his Paris establishments. This recognition underscores the exceptional dining experience that awaits every guest at Restaurant Guy Savoy in Las Vegas.

"Restaurant Guy Savoy is the pinnacle of luxury dining in Las Vegas," Terrence O'Donnell, SVP and General Manager of Caesars Palace. "We are proud to celebrate this prestigious recognition alongside our longtime partner Chef Guy Savoy and his exceptional team, who continue to define the ultimate standard of culinary artistry."

Since opening in 2006, Restaurant Guy Savoy at Caesars Palace has been adorned with praise, awards and honors from the finest institutions and media outlets in the world, including two Michelin stars. The dining destination has earned Wine Spectator's Grand Award, the Forbes Five-Star Restaurant award and the AAA Five Diamond Designation every year since 2008.
