About JetBlue

JetBlue is a low-fare, low-cost passenger airline, which provides high-quality customer service. JetBlue operates a fleet of 57 new Airbus A320 aircraft and plans to add another 12 A320s to its fleet in 2004. The airline has on order 100 EMBRAER 190 aircraft with options for an additional 100 with deliveries scheduled to begin in mid 2005. All JetBlue aircraft feature roomy all-leather seats each equipped with free live satellite television, offering up to 24 channels of DIRECTV(r) Programming at every seat (see note). JetBlue has been named "Best Domestic Airline" for the last two years by the readers of Conde Nast Traveler magazine.

Based at New York City's John F. Kennedy International Airport, JetBlue currently operates 238 flights a day and serves 23 destinations in 11 states and Puerto Rico. JetBlue plans to commence new service from JFK to Aguadilla, Puerto Rico on May 27, 2004, and has applied to the U.S. Department of Transportation for international route authority to serve both Santiago and Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic, with proposed start dates of June 10 and June 17, 2004, respectively. With JetBlue, all seats are assigned, all travel is ticketless, all fares are one-way, and a Saturday night stay is never required. For more information, schedules and fares, please visit www.jetblue.com or call JetBlue reservations at 1-800-JETBLUE (538-2583). This press release, as well as past press releases, can be found on www.jetblue.com.

Note: DIRECTV(r) service is not available on flights between New York City and San Juan, Puerto Rico.
