About JetBlue

JetBlue is a low-fare, low-cost passenger airline, which provides high-quality customer service. JetBlue operates a fleet of 58 new Airbus A320 aircraft and plans to add another 11 A320s to its fleet in 2004. The airline has 100 EMBRAER 190 aircraft on order with options for an additional 100 with deliveries scheduled to begin in mid 2005. All JetBlue aircraft feature roomy all-leather seats each equipped with free live satellite television, offering up to 24 channels of DIRECTV(R) Programming at every seat (see Note).

Based at New York City's John F. Kennedy International Airport, JetBlue currently operates 246 flights a day and serves 23 destinations in 11 states and Puerto Rico. JetBlue plans to commence new service between Boston, MA and Oakland, CA and between Washington, D.C. and Sacramento, CA on May 4, between JFK and San Jose, CA on June 10, and between JFK and Aguadilla, Puerto Rico on May 28. Subject to receipt of government operating authority, JetBlue also plans to initiate service between JFK and Santiago and Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic on June 10 and June 17, respectively. With JetBlue, all seats are assigned, all travel is ticketless, all fares are one-way, and a Saturday night stay is never required. For more information, schedules and fares, please visit www.jetblue.com or call JetBlue reservations at 1-800-JETBLUE (538-2583). This press release, as well as past press releases, can be found on www.jetblue.com.

Note: DIRECTV(R) service is not available on flights between New York City and Puerto Rico or the Dominican Republic.
