JetBlue Expands Caribbean Service; Fares Start From Just $75* Each Way: Low-fare Carrier Offers Additional Flights from JFK to Nassau, San Juan and Aguadilla; Ends Santo Domingo Service

NEW YORK, Feb. 1, 2005 (PRIMEZONE) -- JetBlue Airways (Nasdaq:JBLU) is adding new service to the Caribbean. Starting June 17, the low-fare carrier will add, from New York's John F. Kennedy International Airport, a sixth daily nonstop flight to San Juan, Puerto Rico and, on July 1, a second daily nonstop to both Aguadilla, on Puerto Rico's northwest coast, and to Nassau in The Bahamas.

On March 3, the airline will end service to Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic but will continue serving the country with a daily nonstop to Santiago from JFK.

The airline's regular one-way fares for all Caribbean service range from $139* to $299*. However, JetBlue is offering a "Take 5" sale fare between JFK and the Caribbean which starts from $75* each way. This sale fare requires a 5-day advance purchase, and must be bought at www.jetblue.com or by calling 1-800-JETBLUE by February 4, 2005. Travel must be completed by May 25, 2005. Customers should book early as seats are limited and may not be available on all flights.

"JetBlue has served Puerto Rico for three years now and this summer we will serve the destination with a total of eight daily nonstop flights to San Juan and Aguadilla," said David Neeleman, JetBlue's Chairman and CEO. "We're also excited to add a second daily nonstop to Nassau in The Bahamas, a destination we commenced serving only three months ago. While we regret canceling service to Santo Domingo, we're pleased to continue serving the Dominican Republic with daily nonstop service to Santiago."
