JetBlue Seeks Authority to Provide International Service to Bermuda: Low-fare Carrier Proposes Two New Daily Nonstop Flights from New York City to Bermuda, in Filing with the U.S. Department of Transportation

NEW YORK, Jan. 26, 2006 (PRIMEZONE) -- JetBlue Airways (Nasdaq:JBLU), New York's hometown airline, requested authority from the U.S. Department of Transportation to provide international nonstop service to Bermuda. Pending approval from both governments, the proposed service from John F. Kennedy International Airport would operate with two daily nonstop flights to Bermuda, planned to begin May, 2006 (Note 1).

JetBlue Airways is a low-fare airline based in New York City that operates 370 flights daily to 34 destinations. JetBlue offers customers roomy leather seats with 36 channels of free DIRECTV(R)(Note 2) programming, the most live television offered by any airline. On flights longer than two hours, the airline also features a selection of first-run movies and bonus features from FOX InFlight. Customers enjoy brand name snacks and beverages, including freshly brewed Dunkin' Donuts coffee and fine wines selected by JetBlue's "Low Fare Sommelier," Joshua Wesson, founder of Best Cellars. With JetBlue, all seats are assigned, all travel is ticketless, all fares are one-way and an overnight stay is never required. For information or reservations call 1-800-JETBLUE (1-800-538-2583) or visit www.jetblue.com.

Note 1: This service is subject to receipt of government operating authority.

Note 2: DIRECTV(R) service is not available on flights between JFK or Newark and Puerto Rico or the Dominican Republic; however, FOX InFlight is offered complimentary on these routes. FOX InFlight is a trademark of Twentieth Century Fox Film Corporation. JetBlue's in-flight entertainment is powered by LiveTV, a wholly owned subsidiary of JetBlue.
