Connect Four -- JetBlue Airways Announces Two New Cities and Four New Routes

New York/JFK to Pittsburgh

Boston to Pittsburgh

New York/JFK to Jacksonville

Boston to Buffalo

NEW YORK, March 17, 2006 (PRIMEZONE) -- JetBlue Airways Corp. (Nasdaq:JBLU), today announces it will begin service to two new destinations: Pittsburgh, PA, and Jacksonville, FL. The low-fare carrier will begin four daily flights between New York/JFK and Pittsburgh and two daily flights between Boston and Pittsburgh, effective June 30, 2006. New York's hometown airline also announced three daily flights between JFK and Jacksonville, FL, beginning June 15. The low-fare carrier will also begin service between Boston and Buffalo with three daily nonstop flights effective June 30, 2006.

"The people of Pittsburgh and Jacksonville have built strong communities even in the face of high fares and a lack of competition to the cities they need to visit," said JetBlue's CEO David Neeleman. "The crewmembers of JetBlue are proud to bring our award-winning service to Pittsburgh and Jacksonville, and between Boston and Buffalo with new nonstop, low-fare service."

JetBlue will begin daily service to Pittsburgh from New York/JFK beginning June 30, 2006, with everyday low fares between $64(a) and $129(a) each way.

The low-fare carrier's new service between Pittsburgh and Boston will also begin June 30, 2006, with everyday low fares between $74(a) and $139(a) each way.

"Pennsylvania proudly welcomes JetBlue Airways to Pittsburgh," said Governor Ed Rendell. "Pennsylvania has shown that it can attract the best in class businesses and JetBlue has proven, with its award winning customer service, that Pennsylvania means business. I know that Pittsburgh's residents will enjoy the new flights to Boston and New York City, and I look forward to JetBlue's expansion in the Keystone State. This is further evidence of the positive business climate we have created that is helping us to attract new jobs and new investment."

"We are happy to welcome Jet Blue to our home, one of the cleanest and safest cities in the country, and welcome their investment to shorten the distance between two great American cities," said Pittsburgh Mayor Bob O'Connor.

"I am excited to welcome JetBlue Airways to the Pittsburgh region. It has been a priority of my administration to work with the Airport Authority and the Regional Air Service Partnership to ensure the long-term success of the Pittsburgh International Airport," said Dan Onorato, Allegheny County Chief Executive. "Increasing access and competition to Boston and New York will help to stimulate additional economic growth for our region."

"We have been working closely with JetBlue to encourage this new service. We call on the region's business and leisure travelers to take advantage of this lower cost fare structure and help the airline to grow its network from Pittsburgh," said Glenn R. Mahone, Chairman, Allegheny County Airport Authority. "We are elated that JetBlue Airways will be bringing its unique brand of air service to Pittsburgh International Airport."

The new nonstop service to Pittsburgh and the new Boston - Buffalo route, will be flown with JetBlue's new EMBRAER 190 aircraft. The EMBRAER 190s are configured with 100 comfy leather seats in a two-by-two layout. Customers have either an aisle or a window seat, ensuring easy movement throughout the cabin. All JetBlue E190s are equipped with our popular in-flight entertainment system, 36 channels of DIRECTV(r) programming and more than 100 channels of XM Satellite Radio for free and, on flights longer than two hours, a selection of movies from FOX InFlight.

The new nonstop service between New York/JFK and Jacksonville, FL will be flown with the low-fare carrier's Airbus A320 aircraft. The Airbus A320, with the widest fuselage of any single-aisle aircraft, offers customers wider seats and aisles, more overhead storage space and greater legroom than any other aircraft in its class. All seats are equipped with JetBlue's popular entertainment system, featuring 36 channels of free DIRECTV(r) programming and, on flights longer than two hours, a selection of movies from FOX InFlight.

In the six years since its launch, JetBlue Airways has focused on creating a new airline category -- an airline that offers value, service and style. Based out of New York City, the low-cost carrier currently serves 34 destinations with more than 410 flights daily. Onboard JetBlue, customers enjoy roomy leather seats and 36 channels of free DIRECTV(r) programming (b), the most live TV available on any airline. On flights longer than two hours, a selection of first-run movies and bonus features from FOX InFlight(tm) is also available. JetBlue offers customers generous brand name snacks and beverages, including freshly brewed Dunkin' Donuts coffee, and delicious wines selected by the airline's Low Fare Sommelier, Josh Wesson from Best Cellars. With JetBlue, all seats are assigned, all travel is ticketless, all fares are one-way, and an overnight stay is never required. For information or reservations call 1-800-JETBLUE (1-800-538-2583) or visit www.jetblue.com.

(a) Fares require up to a 14-day advance purchase. Customers can save an additional $5 each way when purchasing online at www.jetblue.com. Fares may not be available on all days or on all flights. Fares are most often found on midweek travel dates. All fares must be purchased at time of reservation, and are one-way, nonrefundable, and nontransferable. Cancellations and changes can be made prior to scheduled departure for $30 at 1-800-JETBLUE (or, in the case of changes, at jetblue.com). All changes are subject to applicable fare adjustment. Changes are not eligible for a $5 Internet savings. Cancellations are for a JetBlue travel credit only, which is valid for one year. If a reservation is not changed or cancelled prior to scheduled departure, all money associated with the reservation is forfeited. Fares do not include Passenger Facility Charges of up to $9 each way, September 11th Security Fees of up to $5 each way and a Federal Segment Tax of $3.30 per domestic segment. A segment is a takeoff and landing. Caribbean and Bermuda fares also do not include government fees and taxes of up to $71.45 each way. All taxes and fees must be paid at the time of purchase. JetBlue reserves the right to deny boarding to passengers without proper documentation. Other restrictions apply.

(b) DIRECTV(r) service is not available on flights to/from Bermuda, Puerto Rico or the Dominican Republic; however, where applicable FOX InFlight is offered complimentary on these routes. FOX InFlight is a trademark of Twentieth Century Fox Film Corporation. JetBlue's in-flight entertainment is powered by LiveTV, a wholly owned subsidiary of JetBlue.
