JetBlue Supports FAA's Integrated Airspace Alternative Plan
NEW YORK, Sep 5, 2007 (PrimeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) -- JetBlue Airways (Nasdaq:JBLU) Chief Executive Officer Dave Barger today issues the following statement of support for the Federal Aviation Administration's formal adoption of the Integrated Airspace Alternative, designed to reduce delays in the New York and Philadelphia metropolitan centers through more efficient routing and procedures:
"We applaud the FAA and The Port Authority of New York and New Jersey for identifying the right first-step solutions to the industry's growing congestion problem. As the largest airline at New York's John F. Kennedy International Airport, JetBlue is prepared to fully support the FAA's plan, including partnering with government and industry experts to determine the tactical and strategic changes needed."

New York-based JetBlue Airways has created a new airline category based on value, service and style. Known for its award-winning service and free TV as much as its low fares, JetBlue is now pleased to offer customers the most legroom throughout coach (based on average fleet-wide seat pitch for U.S. airlines). JetBlue is also America's first and only airline to offer its own Customer Bill of Rights, with meaningful compensation for customers inconvenienced by service disruptions within JetBlue's control. Visit www.jetblue.com/promise for details. JetBlue serves 54 cities with up to 575 daily flights. With JetBlue, all seats are assigned, all travel is ticketless, all fares are one-way, and an overnight stay is never required.
