New York's hometown airline is proud to now offer the most seats to the most destinations -- all aboard the most spacious jets -- from Westchester County with its 11 roundtrips each day, including the only service to Fort Lauderdale, Fort Myers and Tampa.

JetBlue now offers the following daily flights from Westchester County Airport:

* Fort Lauderdale (3 flights)

"In response to continuing demand for high-quality air service in suburban New York and Connecticut, JetBlue has grown its White Plains service from just four flights last year to 11 flights today," said Marty St. George, JetBlue's Vice President of Planning. "Travelers find Westchester County Airport to be an incredibly convenient option, making their trip to Florida to see friends and family, or just to get away for a few days, immediately enjoyable."

All JetBlue service from Westchester County is operated with quiet, fuel-efficient, and full-size jets that boast 36 channels of DIRECTV(r) programming at every seat -- the most free live television of any airline -- in addition to more than 100 channels of XM Satellite Radio, all-leather seating, and industry-leading legroom. The experience is made complete by JetBlue's award-winning crewmembers, who offer up unlimited free snacks and beverages, plus their acclaimed brand of customer service.

Westchester County is one of seven JetBlue destinations in the Empire State; other cities with JetBlue's acclaimed service include Buffalo, Newburgh, New York/JFK, New York/LaGuardia, Rochester, and Syracuse.
