JetBlue to Offer Service from Boston to Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic

-- Now offering 31 nonstop destinations from JetBlue's Hub hub -

BOSTON, March 11, 2009 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX/ -- - Flights to Santo Domingo to be offered year-round -

JetBlue Airways (Nasdaq: JBLU), the airline with the most nonstop destinations from Logan International Airport, today announces plans to kick off service to yet another new destination from Boston this year. Beginning June 19, 2009, JetBlue will offer year-round service to Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic -- the value airline's 31st destination from Boston -- subject to receipt of foreign government approval.

JetBlue will initially offer nonstop flights between Boston and the Dominican capital three days per week (Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays) with plans to expand to daily service over the peak winter season. This new nonstop link complements JetBlue's existing connecting service available daily between Boston and the Dominican cities of Puerto Plata, Santiago, and Santo Domingo.

JetBlue's schedule to Santo Domingo, effective June 19, 2009:

     Boston (BOS) to                    Santo Domingo, D.R. (SDQ) to

"JetBlue is proud to continue investing in Boston with new service to Santo Domingo, our 31st destination from Logan," said Scott Laurence, JetBlue's vice president of network planning. "This new route makes it a breeze to get away, whether you're headed home to visit family and friends or just want to jet off and take in the beauty and culture of one of the Caribbean's most fascinating cities."

"JetBlue's continued expansion at Boston Logan shows the popularity of the airline and the power of the Boston market," said Edward C. Freni, Director of Aviation for the Massachusetts Port Authority. "We welcome the start of year-round service to Santo Domingo and look forward to JetBlue's continued growth at Logan."

"Aerodom is very pleased with JetBlue's decision to offer scheduled low cost air service between Boston and Santo Domingo," said Rodolfo Salgado, CEO of Aerodom, the operator of the Santo Domingo airport. "Boston is a major U.S. market with a significant and growing Dominican population and a steadily increasing number of tourists from Boston and surrounding area booking vacations in the Dominican Republic. We are confident that, as a result of this new route, tourism and commercial ties between these two vibrant cities will be strengthened, making this very good news indeed for the Dominican Republic."

JetBlue will operate its new Boston - Santo Domingo service aboard its spacious 150-seat Airbus A320 jets, which offers customers top-notch comforts including all-leather seating, industry leading legroom, and for a nominal fee, first-run movies on its personal seatback televisions in both Spanish and English. JetBlue's generous snack and beverage selection -- plus its award-winning customer service -- is included in every low fare.
