Later this month, JetBlue will continue building its international network with nonstop service between Fort Lauderdale, Fla. and both Cancun, Mexico, and Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, effective June 18, and also between Boston and Santo Domingo beginning June 19.

"This winter JetBlue will continue to strengthen its commitment to the Caribbean and Latin America, as we offer travelers as many as 76 daily flights to an array of destinations, including our newest getaways, Barbados, Kingston and Saint Lucia," said Robin Hayes, JetBlue's chief commercial officer. "With a fare of just $99 each way, experiencing the best of the Caribbean is more affordable than ever. Add in JetBlue's snacks, comfy seats, extra legroom, seatback entertainment, and customer service, and there's no better value around."

JetBlue's new Caribbean destinations will be served with the airline's spacious 150-seat Airbus A320 aircraft. The A320 offers travelers all of the amenities for which JetBlue has become well-regarded throughout the Americas: complimentary seatback television programming including free first-run movies (on Caribbean and Latin America flights), comfortable leather seats, the most legroom in coach of any U.S. airline (c), unlimited free snacks and industry-leading customer service.
