JetBlue serves Nantucket Memorial Airport with its quiet and fuel-efficient 100-seat EMBRAER 190, the most spacious aircraft jetting to the island. The E190 offers roomy leather seats with industry-leading legroom, 36 channels of DIRECTV(R) programming, and more than 100 channels of XM Satellite Radio - the only in-flight entertainment to Nantucket. On the quick hop to Nantucket, customers are also treated to JetBlue's premium snack selection which features seven tasty options plus a whole host of complimentary beverages offered by JetBlue's award-winning crewmembers.

"New Yorkers love to escape the city and vacation on Nantucket," said Tracy Bakalar, Nantucket Island Chamber of Commerce's executive director. "JetBlue's service from JFK to the island is a great option, not only for those originating from the New York area, but also for folks connecting from other U.S. and international cities."

"JetBlue is proud to be returning to Nantucket for our fourth summer," said Scott Laurence, JetBlue's vice president of route planning. "Our easy nonstop flights prove that getting there doesn't have to be a hassle. With JetBlue, you can jet from the city and touch down in Nantucket an hour later, making the journey as enjoyable and stress-free as the destination."

In addition to this seasonal nonstop service between New York and Nantucket, JetBlue customers have year-round access to the island and other popular destinations including Hyannis, Martha's Vineyard, Nantucket, and Provincetown, Mass., plus Rutland/Killington, Vt., through JetBlue's marketing agreement with Cape Air. The partnership offers customers low fares, one-stop reservations, simplified baggage check-in and transfer, and fast same-terminal connections for travelers making connections through JetBlue's Boston focus city onto Cape Air-operated flights.
