"Focusing our growth on Boston and Caribbean markets has proven to be a winning strategy for customers and JetBlue," said Dave Clark, director of route planning at JetBlue. "We've received a tremendous response in both markets and are happy to continue providing more flights with great fares and the award-winning service customers have come to expect of us."

JetBlue intends to operate its San Juan to Tampa service with 150-seat Airbus A320 aircraft while JetBlue's Jacksonville to San Juan service will be operated with the airline's spacious EMBRAER 190. Both aircraft types offer travelers all of the amenities for which JetBlue has become well-regarded: complimentary seatback televisions including over 36 free channels of DIRECTV (d), comfortable leather seats and the most legroom in coach of any U.S. airline (e), unlimited free snacks and award-winning customer service. Customers looking to pamper themselves even further can upgrade to a super-spacious Even More Legroom seat.

About JetBlue Airways

Voted "Most Eco-Friendly Airline" by Zagat's Airline Survey in 2008 and 2009, New York-based JetBlue Airways has created a new airline category based on value, service and style. In 2010, the carrier also ranked "Highest in Customer Satisfaction Among Low-Cost Carriers in North America" by J.D. Power and Associates, a customer satisfaction recognition received for the sixth year in a row. Known for its award-winning service and free TV as much as its low fares, JetBlue offers the most legroom in coach of any U.S. airline (based on average fleet-wide seat pitch) and super-spacious Even More Legroom seats. JetBlue is also America's first and only airline to offer its own Customer Bill of Rights, with meaningful and specific compensation for customers inconvenienced by service disruptions within JetBlue's control. Visit www.jetblue.com/promise for details. JetBlue serves 61 cities with 600 daily flights. New service to Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport in Washington, DC and to Bradley International Airport in Hartford, CT begins in November. The airline also intends to serve Providenciales, Turks & Caicos Islands in February 2011, subject to receipt of government operating authority. With JetBlue, all seats are assigned, all fares are one-way, and an overnight stay is never required.
