JetBlue Airways Doubles Daily Nonstop Flights from New York's Stewart International Airport to Orlando, Fla.

-- Beginning summer 2011 JetBlue will offer two daily non-stop flights from New York's Hudson Valley to Orlando, growing its position as Stewart's largest airline by passengers carried --

NEW YORK (November 16, 2010) – JetBlue Airways (Nasdaq: JBLU) today announces a seasonal increase from one to two daily non-stop flights from Newburgh/Stewart International Airport (SWF) in New York's Hudson Valley to Orlando International Airport (MCO) beginning June 16, 2011, providing more options and more value to East Coast travelers. This second daily flight will operate during peak travel seasons throughout the year, including spring, summer and winter.

In addition to its Orlando service, JetBlue offers the only nonstop service from Newburgh to Fort Lauderdale and convenient connections through Florida to Caribbean destinations including San Juan, Puerto Rico, Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, Cancun, Mexico and Bogotá, Colombia. Tickets are available for purchase today at www.jetblue.com.

JetBlue launched daily full-size jet service from Newburgh on December 19, 2006, and is pleased to double service from Stewart to Orlando while maintaining its popular Fort Lauderdale route with convenient non-stop service. The additional flight strengthens the airline's position as the largest carrier at Stewart International Airport based on passengers carried.

"JetBlue has provided award-winning service from Newburgh to Orlando for four years, and we're proud we continue to be the customer's carrier of choice," said Dave Clark, director of network planning for JetBlue Airways. "Whether you're flying to Florida or the Caribbean, JetBlue offers all customers a free first checked bag, all-leather seats, the most legroom in coach of any U.S. airline, more than 36 channels of free, live TV, and more than 100 channels of satellite radio, complimentary snacks and most importantly, our award winning service."

"The Port Authority's partnership with JetBlue Airways has consistently paid big dividends for our customers," said Port Authority Executive Director Chris Ward. "We applaud today's announcement, which reaffirms Stewart International Airport's growing popularity, and reinforces its position as a strong regional airport and invaluable economic asset for the Hudson Valley."

JetBlue's schedule, beginning July 16, 2011, to/from Orlando (MCO):

Newburgh (SWF) to Orlando (MCO)	Orlando (MCO) to Newburgh (SWF)
Depart – Arrive	Depart – Arrive
9:30 a.m. – 12:20 p.m. 7:35 p.m. – 10:24 p.m.*	1:02 p.m. – 3:34 p.m. 4:10 p.m. – 6:42 p.m.*
Flight operates during spring, summer and winter.*

Orlando, one of five focus cities in JetBlue's network, is the airline's "home away from home" for more than 1,000 crewmembers and is the location of JetBlue University, a world-class training facility and support center. The airline continues to grow operations at Orlando International Airport and currently offers service to 23 nonstop destinations, including six international cities.

JetBlue's service from Newburgh to Orlando will be operated on the airline's fleet of spacious Airbus A320 and Embraer 190 aircraft, which offers roomy, all-leather seating, including the most legroom in coach of any U.S. airline. Customers looking to pamper themselves even further can upgrade to a super-spacious Even More Legroom seat.
