JetBlue already offers Alaska travelers the only nonstop service between Anchorage and Los Angeles' convenient Long Beach Airport with daily summer service – and nationwide connections – that will resume its third season beginning May 16, 2013. In addition, the new Anchorage-Seattle route will open up more connections for Alaska travellers onto JetBlue's Seattle-Boston and Seattle-Long Beach routes.

"JetBlue brings a breath of fresh air and competitive fares to the Anchorage-Seattle market," said Scott Laurence, JetBlue's vice president of network planning. "We're sure the all-inclusive fare, when coupled with our award-winning product and service, will increase the number of travellers between Anchorage and Seattle!"

JetBlue's schedule between ANC and SEA:
